

UNESCO New Delhi in association with banglanatak dot com presents

ResiliArt South Asia Webinar

on Building Resilient Communities
Practising Intangible Cultural Heritage

Wednesday, 10 June 2020
4:00 PM - 5:30 PM IST

Please join a discussion on the impact of COVID-19 pandemic on traditional handicraft and folk performing artists and measures needed to build resilience.

Eric Falt, Director and UNESCO Representative to Bhutan, India, Maldives and Sri Lanka will welcome the panelists and share about the ResiliArt initiative.

The panelists are

Sreya Guha, IAS, Principal Secretary Art & Culture and Tourism, Government of Rajasthan
Johannes Theurer, Senior producer, Radio Berlin & Secretary, World Music Chart Europe
Dr. Sunil Chitrakar, CEO, Mahaguthi Craft With Conscience, Nepal

Shahid Hussain Shamim, Senior Vice President, Handicrafts Manufacturers and Exporters Association of Bangladesh- BANGLACRAFT

Gopinath Parayil, Founder, The Blue Yonder, India

The panel will be moderated by Amitava Bhattacharya, Founder-Director, banglanatak dot com

To join the webinar, please visit:

<https://zoom.us/j/93044982020?pwd=UTIsZm9PTE1LSEJOVDIrdUhUMkxzdz09>

Password: 1234

Queries:

✉ moumita@banglanatak.com

☎ +91 8420106396